Dear Sir,

I watched, with great interest, the developments in the case of US vs. Microsoft. I was not pleased to find out that, in the end, Microsoft will get yet another chance. Microsoft has proven time and again that the letter of the law matters little to it. They will continue their ways, unless you have a sharp set of teeth in this proposal, which I found lacking.

I do not begrudge Microsoft the ability to generate money for itself and shareholders. I do, however, take exception at them manipulating and blackmailing users and manufacturers.
